FUEL PRICE AND GOVERNMENT TAX INCREASES: Due to fluctuating fuel prices throughout the world, it is impossible for commercial airlines, charter airlines, or BRT to predict exact price increases in oil and gas. BRT does its best to reduce or eliminate any fuel surcharges due to fuel price increases. In the event that fuel prices do increase more than airlines budget for by January, BRT may assess a minimum fuel surcharge per traveler. Any surcharges for increases in fuel price and/or government taxes and fees will be assessed per traveler no later than 14 days prior to departure and must be paid by all passengers prior to travel in order to receive their travel documents and tickets.
