Additionally, BRT will not issue refunds due to fear of travel from actual, threatened or perceived violence or terrorists events. Purchase of Travel Insurance (Spring Break Security Plan) is strongly recommended.

ALCOHOL/ILLEGAL DRUGS: The legal drinking age in Mexico and most Caribbean countries is 18 years. In the United States, the legal drinking age is 21 years. BRT does not condone the use of alcohol by those who are under the legal drinking age and in no way condones or encourages intoxication or the use of illegal drugs. BRT has contractual relationships in all destinations with subcontractors who sell or provide Optional Activity Packages to BRT customers. Some of these packages may make available alcoholic beverages. If a BRT client chooses to consume alcoholic beverages, BRT urges that it is done in a responsible manner and that it is important to remember that the excessive use of alcohol or any use of illegal drugs can result in severely impaired judgment, injury, and/or death. All trip participants should know that the underage use of alcohol or ANY use of illegal drugs can result in criminal charges and/or imprisonment.

BALCONIES AND RAILINGS – WARNING!: Balconies and glass doors and panes in and around traveler accommodations are areas where serious accidents and resulting injuries can occur. Height standards for balcony railings in Mexico and other countries can be considerably lower than those in the United States and very few hotels are legally obliged to install “toughened” or safety glass in their windows and doors. Please exercise extreme care when standing close to balcony railings, as deaths and injuries have resulted from falls.

REMOVAL OF CUSTOMER FROM TRIP: BRT reserves the right to remove a customer from a trip if that customer violates any law, whether domestic or foreign, is disruptive to others, or constitutes a danger to himself/herself or others. Additionally, all BRT customers acknowledge that the lodging provider may remove the customer from his/her lodging arrangements for like reasons. In the instance that a BRT customer is thus removed or his/her trip participation terminated before the full length of his/her trip itinerary has passed, the return trip as arranged by BRT will be cancelled and any and all expenses from his/her removal which include but are not limited to lodging accommodations and a return flight are the responsibility of the affected customer. No BRT customer will receive any refund for the remaining portion of the trip.

DOCUMENTATION OF CITIZENSHIP: Possession of proper documentation of citizenship is the sole responsibility of the passenger (i.e. a valid passport). Foreign nationals must consult their local consulates for documentation requirements. Passengers under 18 years of age must carry a notarized letter of consent signed by each parent or legal guardian(s) for travel outside the U.S. Citizenship documentation requirements are subject to change without notice. Failure to provide the air carrier or government officials with the proper documents may lead to denial of boarding, in which case BRT will issue no refunds, nor provide alternate transportation. Expired forms of documentation are not valid under any circumstances. Minors traveling internationally must carry a notarized letter of consent signed by both parents and/or legal guardian(s). BRT STRONGLY RECOMMENDS ALL PERSONS SCHEDULED TO TRAVEL INTERNATIONALLY OBTAIN A PASSPORT WELL IN ADVANCE OF THEIR DEPARTURE DATE, REGARDLESS OF THE ARRANGED MODE OF TRANSPORTATION (AIR, LAND, SEA).

ADVANCED PASSENGER INFORMATION: In order to be in compliance with the United States Customs and Border Control (a component of the Department of Homeland Security) regulations, all BRT customers traveling internationally via air are required to provide birth date, country of citizenship, form/expiration date of identification that will be used for travel, and emergency contact information. ALL AFFECTED CLIENTS MUST SUBMIT THIS INFORMATION TO BRT ONLINE BY ACCESSING THEIR PERSONAL ACCOUNT ON BRT'S WEBSITE. In all cases, this information must be submitted in its entirety no later than 45 prior to departure. Travel Documents will be made available to all BRT clients 5-14 days prior to departure in most all cases. It is important to note that a valid e-mail address is required at the time of booking. BRT is not responsible for undelivered or misdirected mail e-mail or mail, including delays caused by SPAM filter e-mail settings.

Documents (coupons, tickets, wrist bands, etc) relating to Meal Plans and other Optional Packages (including Party Packages) purchased before arrival in the destination are made available to the clients on location. It is the sole responsibility of the client to obtain the respective documents while on vacation as is instructed in the client's Travel Documents. Once distributed, no refunds will be made for loss, theft, and/or unused services of Meal Plan or any other Optional Packages.

BRT provides meal coupons for all meal plans (More Than a Meal Deal) and tickets for Party Packages (Party Extravaganza). Coupons/tickets hold no cash value and may be subject to taxes and tip. No refunds will be made for loss, theft, and/or unused services. BRT acts as an agent for several restaurants/establishments in providing its meal plan and other optional packages (including Party Packages) and is not responsible for acts, errors, failure to honor agreements or omissions by individual restaurants/establishments. Schedules, meal menus, and participating restaurants/establishments are subject to change at any time. For more details, please visit www.brspringbreak.com.

MAJOR CHANGE: If BRT makes a major change prior to the participant's flight departure, participant has the right to cancel and receive a full refund according to the terms listed herein. The applicable major changes are as follows: (1) a change in departure or return dates of more than 48 hours (unless the change results from a flight delay experienced by the carrier), (2) a change in origin or destination city for any flight leg other than a change in the order in which cities are visited, (3) a price increase of more than 10% occurring more than 10 days prior to departure. If BRT becomes aware of a major change 10 or more days prior to departure, BRT will notify tour participants within 7 days of first knowing of such a change. If BRT should become aware of a change within 10 days of departure, it will notify tour participants as soon as possible. Upon receiving notification of a major change, tour participant may cancel in writing within 7 days, but in no event later than the date of departure, and receive a full refund within 14 days of BRT receipt of notice of cancellation. If BRT gives tour participant notice of change after departure, the participant may decline to accept the change and be sent a refund for the portion of his or her payments allocated to the hotel accommodations or transportation not provided within 14 days after scheduled return date. In either case, BRT shall have no further liability to the tour participant. If BRT must cancel, it will notify participant in writing within 7 days of cancellation, but in no event later than 10 days before the scheduled flight departure date. BRT will not cancel within 10 days of the departure date, except for circumstances that make it impossible to perform. If that occurs, notification will be issued as soon as possible but no later than the scheduled departure date. In such an event, a full refund will be made to you within 14 days after cancellation. For International Flights Only: additional restrictions may be imposed on flights by foreign governments involved, and that if landing rights are denied by a foreign government, the flight will be canceled with a full refund to the participant within 14 days of cancellation. The rights and remedies relating to cancellations and major changes prior to flight departure made available under this contract are in addition to any other rights or remedies available under applicable law. However, BRT offers any refunds under this contract with the express understanding that the receipt of that refund by participant waives all other remedies.

TRANSPORTATION DELAYS: Transportation delays are unfortunate, but are an inherent risk in travel and beyond the control and responsibility of BRT. Per D.O.T. regulations regarding delays of public charter flights, airlines are no longer required by law to provide compensation for delays (i.e. rooms, meals or refunds), unless the delay is more than 48 hours. Missed nights' accommodations, missed time in vacation destination, missed connections to/from charter flights, missed wages, missed package features, and additional expenses – including long distance/cell phone calls incurred due to flight delays are beyond BRT's control and responsibility. In addition to any compensation offered by Travel Insurance purchased, BRT's customer service policy provides that any passenger who experiences a delay of more than 12 hours will receive anywhere from $25-$100 (depending on length of delay) per person credit good towards future travel on any BRT charter package. Compensation schedule does not apply to weather-related, air traffic related, or security related delays. Compensation terms and conditions will be outlined on voucher issued.

BAGGAGE/LOST OR DELAYED: Be sure to check with your air carrier for their current baggage allowance and fee schedule as luggage allowances and charges vary by air carrier. BRT is not responsible for the payment of baggage fees charged by airlines and incurred by its clients during their travels to and from their scheduled destinations. For international flights, air carrier liability for lost baggage is limited to $400 total per passenger ($1250 per customer for domestic flights). For delayed baggage, air carrier liability is $25 per person per day, after bags have been delayed for a minimum of 24 hours. Neither the air carrier nor BRT are responsible for customers who fail to submit a lost baggage claim form to their air carrier within 24 hours of arrival and per the instructions of the air carrier. BRT assumes no liability for lost or delayed baggage and strongly recommends purchasing Travel Insurance.

CUSTOMER SERVICE: BRT has representatives in most destinations it offers. If assistance is required while on tour, BRT's on-site staff must be notified. The onsite staff person will make every attempt to assist affected clients. If there are no representatives in your destination, please call 800-875-4525 or 952-933-2455 or contact the numbers provided in your Travel Documents for assistance. Under no circumstances will collateral expenses, such as long-distance/cell phone calls to our home office, be reimbursed. If the matter cannot be resolved, please write the Customer Service Division at: 7575 Golden Valley Road, Suite #350, Golden Valley, MN 55427. Any complaints or claims against BRT must be made in writing and received by BRT within 60 days after the scheduled termination of the return flight.

FLIGHT SCHEDULES: BRT will provide as much information as possible regarding flight schedules at the time of booking. This information is considered tentative and subject to change without notice per operator's option plan. Flight times are not guaranteed and may affect actual length of time in vacation destinations. Schedule changes can occur without notice even after tickets/travel documents have been issued; therefore, the tour participant is responsible for re-confirming both outbound and return flights with the airline with which they are booked. In the rare event that BRT plans an itinerary for the client that includes an overnight layover in a city that differs from the gateway or final destination city, BRT may, at its option, provide pre-paid hotel accommodations for the client. This clause applies only to itineraries scheduled and ticketed by BRT and does not apply to flights that are delayed, missed connections and/or schedule changes by the air carrier. Should BRT have to cancel a flight, regardless of reason, it may at its option, provide ground transportation to the nearest available airport for the clients involved. Due to the inherent variables involved in travel such as weather, traffic, airport closures, etc., any arrival times provided by BRT should be considered approximate and BRT assumes no responsibility for their accuracy or actual length of time of travel.

AIRLINES CONCERNED are not responsible for any act, omission, or event during the time the participants are not on board their aircraft. Participant contract in use by the airline concerned, when issued, shall constitute the sole contract between the airline and the purchaser of these tours and/or the passenger. Upon receiving deposit(s) and registration form(s) participant may be required to sign a charter air/tour participant contract. BRT acts as agents for the above listed airlines and tour companies only in the offering of air transportation in conjunction with the tour.

FUEL PRICE AND GOVERNMENT TAX INCREASES: Due to rising fuel prices throughout the world, it is impossible for commercial airlines, charter airlines, cruise lines, or Bianchi-Rossi Tours to predict exact price increases in oil and gas. BRT does its best to reduce or eliminate any fuel surcharges due to fuel price increases. In the event that fuel prices do increase more than airlines and cruises budget for by February and March, BRT may assess a minimum fuel surcharge per traveler. Any surcharges for increases in fuel price and/or government taxes and fees will be assessed per traveler no later than 14 days prior to departure and must be paid by all passengers prior to travel in order to receive their travel documents and tickets.

Any provision of this Agreement held invalid or unenforceable only in part or degree will remain in full force and effect to the extent not held invalid or unenforceable.

WAIVER: Any failure by either Party at any time, or from time to time, to enforce or to require the strict keeping and performance of any of the terms and conditions of this Agreement shall not constitute a waiver of any such terms and conditions and shall not affect or impair such terms and conditions in any way or the right of such Party at any time to avail itself of such remedies as it has for the breach or breaches of such terms and conditions.
